Dear Ms. Mayer,

RE: Cynthia Holmes v. Darryl Ross

I am in receipt of your letter dated yesterday and will respond to same under separate cover.

Ms. Holmes is prepared to work towards a resolution of all of the issues. Therefore, Ms. Holmes and Mr. Delaney of our office would like to propose a four way meeting in an attempt to resolve the custody and parenting arrangements, as well as begin to discuss the property issues. If your client is willing to cooperate, for the sake of Charlotte and Alice, kindly advise of your availability for late next week.

Interim issues

Ms. Holmes has asked me to communicate the following:

1. Ms. Holmes will be dropping off some of the girls personal effects this afternoon on the porch, including Charlotte's ballet items;
2. Ms. Holmes would like to remind Mr. Ross that Charlotte has ballet at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday with Miss Mel; and
3. Ms. Holmes will be picking up Charlotte and Alice from school and daycare on Monday, November 30, 2015.

Moving November 30, 2015

Ms. Holmes is moving into her new townhouse between November 30, 2015 and December 1, 2015. On November 30, 2015 Ms. Holmes would like to attend the matrimonial home to pick up some personal effects. Attached, please find a list of items she would like to remove from the home.

Pickup on November 30, 2015

Ms. Holmes will be at the school at 3:40 p.m. on Monday November 30, 2015 to retrieve her daughters from school and daycare. I trust she will not receive any resistance.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Alison Boyce', with a stylized flourish extending from the end.
